2011 PINOT NOIR Mendocino County

GOLD MEDAL

2013 Grand Harvest Awards

This vintage of Mendocino Pinot Noir is a blend of fruit from three different locations: Potter Valley, Anderson Valley, and Oppenlander Vineyard.

The wine offers aromas of raspberry, cherry, and cranberry, with intriguing hints of cappuccino, toffee, and crème brûlée. Flavors of cherry, strawberry and pomegranate follow on the palate. The finish hints of chocolate and violets.

With its firm texture and bright acidity, this is a perfect wine to serve with dishes, like Porchetta, marinated pork tenderloin or barbecued ribs.
