2013 PINOT BLANC Mendocino County

DOUBLE GOLD MEDAL

2013 Mendocino County Wine Competition

The majority of the fruit for this wine came from Schrader Ranch, located at the southern end of the Ukiah Valley. This area is known to produce full-flavored Chardonnay and is a great site for Pinot Blanc. A small amount of Riesling from The Green Ranch on Mendocino Ridge was added to increase acidity and add structure to the wine.

The wine exhibits aromas of chamomile tea, sweet orange, vanilla, honey, spring narcissus and peach. Flavors of fresh apricot, Asian pear, brioche and key lime zest, with a spicy mouth-filling mid-palate and pleasant minerality in the finish.

Enjoy this Pinot Blanc with truffled popcorn, sole meunière or a charcuterie selection.
